

It should be my choice as to which Internet company I select. I disagree with the long term results of the Verizon petition: meaning I will will have only two choices for Internet - my cable company or my telephone company. Monopoly of any kind has never resulted in benefit for the end user and loses valuable jobs.

I request that you do not consider the Verizon petition as a real option.